Secret to Leveraging

ABOUT

I trained as a nurse and planned to work abroad like my father. The door closed, and a recruitment agency took ₱200,000 from me. I stayed, taught myself the work, and built from Cebu instead.

Today I run a few small businesses. The one most people know is Podcast Engineers, a team handling podcasts for creators and brands worldwide since 2013 that now runs mostly without me. I also co-own Te'Amo Café with my wife Pia and invest in short-stay property through Pacific Living. I am a past president of Cebu South Toastmasters, and I speak and train whenever I get the chance.

WHAT I TALK ABOUT

- 01 Work less, earn more Leverage and delegation. How to hand work off so the business stops depending on you.
- 02 Your first AI employee Delegating to AI without learning software. Built live on screen, not in theory.
- 03 Money habits that hold Budgeting and financial habits for owners and freelancers who earn well and keep little.
- 04 Freelance to founder The jump from selling your hours to building something that outlives them.

STAGES & ROOMS

- * WordCamp Cebu · 2024
- * CDF Master Camp · 2025
- * Cebu Normal University · student sessions
- * 5ELK · corporate training
- * TribeX · "The Dumbest in the Room"
- * Cebu South Toastmasters · past president
